SOHAM KILLER ATTACKED MUM'S VISIT TO HUNTLEY

EXCLUSIVE by PAUL SIMS

SOHAM beast Ian Huntley's mum visited him in hospital last night and told pals he was "unrecognisable" after being battered in a jail attack. The double child killer, 52, left, is in an induced coma after his skull was crushed with a metal pole, but Lynda Richards, 71, told friends she is "still his mother".

SAMUEL FECKETT!

By GARY MENEELY

AN Irish Navy ship is heading for the body shop after one hull of a quayside bump.

The LÉ Samuel Beckett was damaged turning on the River Liffey after Minister Helen McEntee, inset, had launched a new maritime strategy on the boat. A Defence Forces spokesperson admitted it would need "minor repairs".
