From OWEN COWZER in Budapest

WONDERKID Troy Parrott smashed a hat-trick past Hungary to keep Ireland's World Cup hopes alive.

Following two earlier goals that kept us in the game, the Dublin hero sent a flick-on from Liam Scales to the back of the net in the dying seconds in Budapest yesterday.

After the dramatic 2-3 win, Troy said: "I don't think I'll ever have a better night in my whole life."

The Boys in Green now face play-off games to make it to next year's World Cup in North America.
